

Affirming Housing as a Human Right

WHEREAS access to safe and adequate housing is a fundamental human right essential for the overall well-being and dignity of individuals;

AND WHEREAS, recognizing housing as a human right is consistent with international human rights principles and obligations, including those outlined in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights, and the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples;

AND WHEREAS, the Government of Canada has recognized the right to adequate housing is a fundamental human right, as affirmed in international law;

NOW THEREFORE, I MOVE, seconded by the Member for Range Lake, that the Northwest Territories Legislative Assembly acknowledge and affirm housing as a fundamental human right;

AND FURTHER, that the implementation of housing as a fundamental human right within the laws of the Northwest Territories and policies of the Government of the Northwest Territories be referred to Standing Committee on Social Development for further study.
